

ETHICS VS. LAW

Who says everything is fair?

Presented by

Monday, October 24, 2007, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM
Nicholas County Senior Center, Summersville, WV

Many questions arise regarding what you can ethically do in your practice versus what the law says you must do. Standards relating to scope of practice and scope of competence are always found at the heart of evaluating success with any given client and are most significant when ethical, legal or quality of care issues arise. This workshop will provide attendees with different experience levels an opportunity to review the NASW Code of Ethics and its specific application in the field.

Presenter Jon Kemper has worked with the substance abuse and addiction population for close to 30 years. He has a master's degree in safety from WVU and is a LSW, CCAC and CSS. Jon is the Regional Substance Abuse Coordinator for Seneca.

Presenter Liz Bragg has worked in the behavioral health field for nearly 25 years. She has a Masters of Social Work from WVU and is a LSW. Liz is the Director of Title XIX MR/DD Waiver Program at Seneca.

Presenter Randy Housh has trained some 5000 professional and paraprofessional staff over the past 8 years. Randy's high energy, motivational style has made him a favorite among businesses throughout West Virginia and the Eastern United States. Randy is the Grant and Business Development Specialist for Seneca.

6 CEUs for Social Workers

Advanced registration and payment required.

Complete and send with $25.00 fee to:
Seneca Health Services, Inc.
1305 Webster Road
Summersville, WV 26651

Make check payable to:
Seneca Health Services, Inc.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone #: _____

For additional info, contact Amy LeRose (304) 872-6503 or hr@shsinc.org.